DIFFABILITY HOLLYWOOD

A FILM BY ADRIAN ESPOSITO

Move to Include presents a free Little Theatre screening of Diffability Hollywood, a documentary about Hollywood's portrayal of people with disabilities in film, by local filmmaker Adrian Esposito. The screening will be followed by a Q&A with filmmaker Adrian Esposito, hosted by author and movie critic Jack Garner.

Diffability Hollywood features many celebrities and actors including Johnny Knoxville (pictured), and advocates with disabilities. The film's mission is to emphasize the capabilities of people with disabilities, especially those with developmental disabilities and advocate for more inclusion of writers, directors and actors with disabilities into the industry.

Move to Include is a partnership between WXXI and the Golisano Foundation designed to promote inclusion for people with intellectual and physical disabilities. Through programming and special events, WXXI and the Golisano Foundation look to build a more inclusive community by inspiring and motivating people to embrace different abilities and include all people in every aspect of community life. To learn more visit: WXXI.org/include

This screening is part of Spread the Word to End the Word, a campaign to inspire respect and acceptance through raising the consciousness of society about the R-word and how hurtful words and disrespect can be toward people with intellectual disabilities.
