Golisano To Give Up CEO Role

In the headlines this afternoon, the billionaire founder of Paychex, B. Thomas Golisano, will step down as president and chief executive of one of the nation’s two biggest providers of payroll and human-resources services.

Former IBM executive Jonathan Judge will replace Golisano, who will remain as Paychex chairman but will focus on his political and philanthropic efforts. Golisano unsuccessfully ran for governor of New York three times. With a net worth estimated at $1 billion, he came in at No. 278 on the latest Forbes 400 list of America’s richest people.
